PART THE SECOND,

COMPLETING

THE CATALOGUE OF THE LIBRARY

BEQUEATHED

TO

THE BRITISH MUSEUM

BY THE LATE

RIGHT HON. THOMAS GRENVILLE.

BY

JOHN THOMAS PAYNE

AND

HENRY FOSS.

LONDON:

PRINTED BY ORDER OF THE TRUSTEES.

THE HISTORY OF THE
HENRY THE SEVENTH
BY JAMES HALLAM ESQ.
IN TWO VOLUMES.
VOL. I.
LONDON:
PRINTED BY W. NICOL, SHAKSPEARE PRESS, PALL MALL.

THIS second part of the Bibliotheca Grenvilliana was commenced in the year 1843, but was discontinued after fifty six pages were printed. The Trustees of the British Museum having resolved to finish the Catalogue, in order that the literary value of the whole of this noble bequest should be made public and also in accordance with the known wish of Mr. Grenville, we, at their request, completed the task.

Since the Publication of the first part in 1842, Mr. Grenville added to his collection many articles of great value and rarity, which, had he previously possessed them, would have been inserted in those volumes, the object of which was to give notices of his rarer books—they will now add to the interest of this volume. The list of Addenda is longer than it would otherwise have been, in consequence of acquisitions made since 1843. Those who are conversant with making alphabetical catalogues of large libraries will readily pardon the occasional erroneous entry of a book, an error which the progress of the printing discloses, and will only allow to be corrected by an insertion in the Addenda.

In order to render the whole catalogue more useful the Addenda of the first part is incorporated in the body of this ; and the Publications of Clubs and Societies, noticed in the Preface, are now given in detail, arranged in the chronological order in which they made their appearance. An Index, upon the same plan as that in the first part, closes the Volume.

We cannot conclude better, than by adopting the last paragraph in Mr. Panizzi's report made to the Trustees in March last.

“ During his lifetime, Mr. Grenville's Library was most liberally rendered accessible to any person, however humble his condition in life, who could shew the least reason for asking the loan of any of his precious volumes. By bequeathing the whole to the Country, Mr. Grenville has secured to literary men, even after his death, that assistance, so far as relates to the use of his books, which he so generously bestowed on them in every way during his long and dignified career—the career of a man of high birth, distinguished for uniting to a powerful and cultivated intellect a warm and benevolent heart.”

Pall Mall,
June, 1848.

Collation. The volume commences without any title, thus, “Ome che a memoria;” it consists of sixty-five leaves having catchwords in the middle of the bottom margin of the reverse of the last leaf of each gathering. It has seven gatherings and one leaf, the 1st, 2nd, 4th and 5th having ten leaves, (the first leaf being blank), the 3rd, 6th and 7th eight leaves.

This Romance History, in Italian prose, is extremely rare. It has been falsely attributed to Boccaccio, and confounded with the Teseide; it is printed in the same character as the rare first edition of that work. The present copy is very large and fine, but the first and last leaves have been admirably supplied in fac-simile by Mr. Harris from the Royal copy (formerly Askew's) in the British Museum; a third copy is in Lord Spencer's Library.

BIBLE. The Holy Bible, containing the Olde Testament and the Newe: authorised and appointed to be read in Churches. Imprinted at London by the Deputies of Christopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes most Excellent Majestie. Anno 1588. Cum Privilegio. Fol. Bl. L.

Collation. The above title is in the centre of an elaborate wood cut, having the motto "Verbum Dei manet in æternū" at the top, and a quotation from Proverbs VIII. 8. 9. at the bottom, with the initials E. R. at the sides. The Prologue commences on [A. ii.] and finishes on [A. iv.] on the verso of which, the Almanacke begins, and finishes on the verso of [B. iv.]. Then, An Analysis of the Contents of the Old and New Testaments, beginning "The whole Scripture of the Bible is divided into two Testaments, &c." two leaves, on the verso of the second there is a large wood cut, representing the Garden of Eden, with the Tree of Knowledge, Adam, Eve, &c. In various parts of this Engraving on Scrolls, are quaint rhymes. The Text commences on A, i and extends to B b b b iv. on the recto of which, the book finishes, having an imprint (the same as on the title) at the bottom. T t iiiii by mistake is printed T t t iiiii; fol. 138. 139.—338. 224.—396. 369.

Besides the Engraved titles to the Old and the New Testaments, there are the following described wood cuts. The Prohibitions of Marriage, on the verso of fol. 49—The Royal Arms on the recto of 219—Map of the Holy Land, on the recto of 448—Chart of the Peregrinations of St. Paul, on the verso of 514.

The only Bibliographical notice of this Edition of the Bible that has been met with, is in the Bib. Sussex. vol. II. p. 324. The Text is the "Bishop's" Version with marginal notes and references. The Book appears to be on Large Paper, and is a beautiful specimen of Printing of the period, each chapter has an ornamented letter at the commencement, and there are type ornaments introduced in several places. The old binding has been restored, and it has the arms of Sir Christopher Hatton on the sides.

Sanlucar de Barrameda en casa des mesmo autor, 1582. 4to.

This book is preceded by numerous commendatory poems, and was of such celebrity as to attract the notice of Ben Jonson, who quotes it more than once in his Plays.

CARAVIA, ALESSANDRO. Il Sogno. In Vinegia, nelle case di Giovann' Antonio di Nicolini da Sabio, 1541. Wood cuts. 4to.

This is a poem in the Venetian Dialect and still rarer than the following.

— L'Inamoramento de Naspo Bizaro, el qual per viver da Christian Batizao sposa con alegrezza Cate Bionda Biriota (da Alessandro Caravia). Venetia, appresso Domenico Nicolino, 1565. Five Plates. 4to. B. M.

Beneath the Title there is an Engraving. The second and third leaves contain a Dedication, addressed to Antonio de la Vechia, signed by the author. The fourth leaf contains an Engraving including the words, "Naspo Bizaro." The text commences on the fifth leaf.

The three first leaves are extremely rare as containing the original title and name of the Author. Brunet gives the title from the commencement of the text, and states that the volume consists of 44 leaves, this copy, has only 43 leaves and appears to be complete. We have not been able to give the Title complete, it being defective in the first two words.

The Second edition. Of extreme rarity.

This edition, though the second, may be considered as the first perfect Edition of the Canterbury Tales, it having been printed from a very superior manuscript from that which was employed for the first, which was very defective. Caxton points this out in a very interesting preface.

The only perfect copy known is in the Library of St. John's College, Oxford, the present, though imperfect, ranks second, being in very fine condition and without any deficiency at the beginning of the volume. Imperfect copies are in the British Museum, the Library of the Royal Society, and in the Collections of Lord Spencer and Lord Ashburnham.

The deficiencies in the present copy are as follows; i. vii., p. i., ii. i. to vi., A. i., B. i. and ii., K. i. to viii., L. iii. and iv. these twenty-one leaves have been admirably supplied in fac-simile by Harris, who has likewise perfected Lord Spencer's copy.

— The Canterbury Tales. To which are added, an Essay upon his language and versification; an introductory discourse; notes and a Glossary. (By Thomas Tyrwhitt). London, 1775-1778. 8vo. 5 vol.

— Canterbury Tales. To which are added an Essay on his Language and Versification, and an Introductory discourse; together with Notes and a Glossary, by Thomas Tyrwhitt. Oxford, 1798. 4to. 2 vol. L. P. G. M.

To this copy are added, Mortimer's Plates, Chaucer's Head and Monument, and Schiavonetti's Procession of Pilgrims (an unfinished Proof).

— The Canterbury Tales of Chaucer in the Original, from the most Authentic MSS. and as they are turned into Modern Language by Dryden, Pope, &c. London, 1837. 8vo.

CHRONICLE. The Croniclis of englonde with the frute of timis. Here ende the Croniclis of englonde with the frute of timis. Sanctus Albanus, (1483). Fol. Bl. L. R. M.

One of the very few books printed at the Abbey of St. Albans in the 15th Century. The value of the present copy is much increased by the results of an examination of all the other copies known, which prove to be more imperfect than was supposed. The one in the British Museum, quoted by Dibdin as perfect, has two leaves of the Text, the last leaf, and two leaves of the Table supplied by MS. The Bodleian has three copies all considerably imperfect. Lord Spencer's wants the last leaf of the Text and several leaves of the Table. Miss Curren's copy upon Vellum wants the last leaf of the Text and one other. The present, in beautiful condition, appears to be the only one hitherto known which contains all the text complete, but four leaves of the Table are supplied by Harris.

On the recto sign. K viii. is the following Note.

"Printerys of bokis wer this tyme mightely multeplyed in maguncie and thurgh out the world, and thei began frist and ther held the craftis. And this time mony men began for to be more sotell in craftis and suyfter then ever they wer afore."

Collation. The book consists of 288 leaves, and commences with the Table which has seven leaves, the first three having signatures a, b, c, the other four none. The references in the Table are singular, as being to the various leaves of the respective signatures of each gathering. These gatherings are all in eights having signatures as follow, a to z, the sign for &, the figure 9, and A to K. Then one leaf, on the recto of which, the book ends, having below five lines of text and the notice of its termination, the Printer's Device in red, with "Sanctus Albanus" beneath it; a i. is blank.

— Here endyth this present cronycle of Englonde wyth the frute of tymes; compiled in a booke and also enprynted by one somtyme scole mayster of saynt Albons, on whoos soule god have mercy. And newly in the yere of our lord god MCCCCLXXXVII. enprynted at Westmestre by Wynkyn de Worde. The descrypcyon of Englonde. Here foloweth a lytell treatyse the whiche treateth of the descrypcyon of this londe whiche of olde tyme was named Albion and after Brytayne. And now is called Englonde and speketh of the noblesse and worthynesse of the same. (The description of Wales is in Verse.) Fynysshed and enprynted at Westmestre by me Wynkyn de Worde, MCCCCLXXXVIII. Fol. Bl. L. B. M.

The King's copy in the British Museum, that at Lambeth and that at Althorp, are the only other copies known of this very rare first edition by Wynkyn de Worde. In the present copy the Chronicle is complete, but in the Description the leaf C. is supplied by Harris, in a remarkably correct imitation.

— A Cronycle of yeres from the begynnynge of the worlde, wherin ye shall fynde the names of all the kynges of Englande, of the Mayres and Shyryffes, of the cytie of London and brefelye of many notable actes done in, and syns the reygne of kyng Henry the fourth, newly augmented, and corrected: where vnto is added the lengthe, bredth, and compasse of Englande: with the nombre of parysse churches, townes, byshoprykes, and shyres in the same: besydes Cyties and Castels; and also the wayes leadynge to the most notable places; and the dystaunce betwyxte the same. Anno 1544. Imprynted at London in Fletestrete, at the signe of the George by Wyllyam Myddylton, 16mo. Bl. L. R. M.

Collation. A and B in eights, C four. Twenty leaves.

This rare little volume is not mentioned in Dibdin's Ames, nor by Lowndes.

— A breuiat Cronicle contaynyng all the Kinges from brute to this daye, and manye notable actes gathered oute of diuers Cronicles from Willyam Conquerour vnto the yere of Christ a. 1552. Prynted at Canterbury in Saynt Paules parish, by John Mychell. 12mo. Bl. L. G. M.

Collation. A sheet of eight leaves with a signature, followed by A-N vii. in eights.

This edition differs from that by the same printer described in part I. p. 145. It has a small addition to the Text, and a Table of the principal Roads.

This "belle et recente nouvelle" containing an account of Columbus, Mexico, &c., is described by Ternaux, No. 22. as
"de la plus grande rareté"

Mr. Panizzi's M.S. account of the book inserted in the volume is very interesting ;
he thinks Ternaux had not seen it, because he states that the account extends only to 1519, whereas it extends to 1522, in which year it was probably printed. At the end is the device of Augsburg, a Pine cone, and no doubt it was printed there.

B. M.

First Edition, extremely rare, from the Library of Mr. George Chalmers, who has written the following note in the volume.

"This first edition of the Confession of Faith printed by John Scott, at Edinburgh, in 1561; he has printed it verbatim as it stands in the Record of Parliament, altering a little the spelling, which was then quite unsettled. He has even given the title and colophon as they stand in the Record of Parliament, with the exception of the blunder of the date in the Colophon, July in place of August; and with the exception of the Imprimatur which he necessarily added.

"It was also printed at Edinburgh in 1561 in 8vo. by Robert Lekpreuik, who took the liberty of altering both the Title and the Colophon.

"It was reprinted at London in 1561, by Rowland Hall in 8vo. from Lekpreuik's Edition, altered in the Title and Colophon as above noted."

Case of the City of London Derry. Case of G. Evelyn (Brother of J. Evelyn,) &c. &c. 1605-1704. Fol. 2 vol. B. M.

- This very curious collection contains about Three hundred and fifty Cases of Grievances, &c. It was obtained at the sale of Mr. George Chalmers, (Part II. No. 1498).

The Case of William Spenser is relative to the forfeiture of his Estate and his Petition for its restoration. Mr. Evans in his note in the Catalogue states the "Poet Spenser was in easy circumstances, and Q. Elizabeth wrote in Sept. 1598 to the Irish Government to recommend him to be Sheriff for Cork. The Rebellion of Tyrone broke out with irresistible force, the Rebels robbed and burnt Spenser's House at Kilcolman, and one of his Children perished in the Flames, and he himself was reduced to Poverty."

A MS. Catalogue of the contents of these volumes is inserted at the beginning.

gysser aleman de Silgenstat en la muy noble y leal cibdad de Salamanca: la qual dicha obra se acabo a VII. del mes de agosto del año de mil y quinientos y nueue años (1509). Fol. Bl. L. R. M.

"I believe the present very rare edition of 1509 to be the second edition, the first edition is of 1496, that of 1501, mentioned by Ebert, may well be questioned. This edition appears to have been copied by that of 1516 up to page 97, but after page 97 there follow 7 leaves of poetry not in the edition of 1516. However at page 91 of the edition of 1516 there is a 'Romance' which is not found in this." MS. note.

For the Edition of 1516, see Part I. p. 229.

EPISTOLÆ. Epistolæ obscurorum virorum ad venerabilem virum

Magistrum Ortuinum Gratium Darentriensem Colonie Agrippinæ bonas litteras docentem: variis et locis et temporibus missæ: ac demum in volumine coactæ.

In Venetia impressum in impressoria Aldi Minutii, Anno quo supra; etiam cavisatum est ut in aliis ne quis audeat post nos impressare per decennium, per illustrissimum Principem Venetianorum, (1516.) 4to. Twenty-two leaves. B. M.

Second edition, rare. Brunet in the new edition of his Manuel speaks of the first edition of this counterfeit Aldine as follows. "Edition regardée comme la première de ce célèbre pamphlet; malgré les noms de ville et d'imprimeur qu'elle porte, c'est évidemment une production des presses allemandes, probablement de celles de Cologne. L'Avant dernière lettre est datée de 1516." These observations equally apply to this edition. The first edition is in Gothic letter and has only 17 leaves. For a curious account of these letters see Ebert, p. 515.

HALS, WILLIAM. The Complete History of Cornwall; Part II. being the Parochial History. n. d. Fol. G. M.

The first part of this volume was never printed and hence it has no general title page. The portion published consists of 160 pages folio, (signatures A—R 2) and contains an account of seventy-two parishes in alphabetical arrangement, beginning with the Parish of "Advent," and ending at that of Helleston or Hellaston, of the description of which there are only six lines printed. The catchword on the last page is "That." The further progress of this work is said to have been stopped for want of encouragement on account of the abusive anecdotes and illiberal reflections which this second part contains relative to some of the principal families in the county. The author was Mr. William Hals, a gentleman of an cient Devonshire family, residing during the greater part of his life at Tresawsen in the parish of Merther. About the year 1750 the publication was undertaken by Mr. Andrew Brice, then a printer at Truro, who afterwards removed to Exeter, where he published an useful geographical dictionary, and other books. Lysons's Cornwall, p. 2.

This volume is one of the scarcest in the Class of English Topography. It is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor is there any copy in the Bodleian, in the Libraries of Gough, Sir R. C. Hoare, or Miss Currier.

The only copy that has occurred for sale was Mr. Lysons's in 1820; but as that had the Author's MS. additions it cannot of course be considered as any criterion of price, that volume sold for £168.

This copy is of peculiar interest as it possesses the printed wrapper to the first number of the Work, on which is detailed in full the Author's intentions regarding the plan and progress of the undertaking.

ISOCRATES. Orationes duæ ad Nicoclem et Dæmonicum (Græcè). S. l. a. et typ. n. (sed Parisiis, apud Gourmontium). 4to. R. M.

Mr. Heber in a long note attached to this copy, which is the one mentioned by Brunet, says, "that the width between the lines and the peculiar manner of placing the accents over the words correspond exactly with the Chrysoloras, Hesiod, &c. printed in 1507—8, and distinguish it manifestly from the later productions of the same press, which no longer betray the rudeness of first attempts. The Musæus by the same printer, supposed by Mr. Renouard to have been Gourmont's first effort in 1507 is evidently posterior and seems to belong to an intermediate period between the present and those of 1512, &c."

LIVIUS, TITUS. Titus Livius duobus libris auctus cum L. Flori epitome, indice copioso et annotatis in Libro VII. Belli Maced. (cum præfationibus Ulrichi Hutteni et Des. Erasmi). Moguntia, in ædibus Joan Scheffer mense Novembri an. M.D. XVIII. Fol. m.

First complete Edition of Livy, and among the very rarest of First Editions. It was published e Cod. Antiq. Langobardicis litteris scripto, and carefully revised and collated by Carbachius with the printed editions, from which he found it to vary in two thousand places. The Preface of Erasmus is also curious, as, though a Dutchman, he claims for Mayence the honour of the invention of Printing. Neither Dibdin or Moss mention the sale of a single copy and the latter says of it "It is extremely rare and valuable and infinitely superior to all those editions which preceded it."

MENA, JUAN DE. Las. ccc. de Juã de meñ. Acabanse las. ccc. de Juan de mena emprendidas en Seuilla en el año de Mil. cccc. y. xcix. a. vii. dias de Otubrio: por Johānes pegniczer de nurenberga y magno herbst compañeros alemanes. 4to. Bl. L. B. M.

Collation, A.—E. in eights, F. four. Forty four leaves. Above the Title is a wood cut.

"The Labarinho, usually called the Trecientas, because written in 300 octave stanzas, was first printed at Seville, 1496, and is so rare that Antonio had never seen it. Panzer quotes a Glossa upon this work as printed at Seville, 1499, and Brunet adopts this from Panzer, neither of them noticing this edition of the original work, which contains no Glossa nor any notice of any such."

"The very rare edition of 1505 in my Library is marked in its Title Page as being the second edition, which is another proof how little this second edition of 1499 was known."

"It appears probable that Panzer never saw the book that he quotes as the Glossa, 1499, whereas the book is really the edition of the original work without any Glossa."

"I believe this to be one of the rarest of early Spanish Books." MS. note.

— Coronacion del famoso poeta Juan de Mena: dirigida a Iñigo lopez de Mendoza Marques de Santillana. Aqui se acaba la coronaciõ del famoso poeta Juã de mena. Fue emprimida en la muy noble y muy leal ciudad de Seuilla por maestre Lançalao polono a xii. del mes de Nouiẽbre en el año de mill. cccc. y. xcix. 4to. Bl. L. B. M.

Collation, A—K. in eights. Eighty leaves.

"This is the earliest edition with a date, which I have seen. Brunet mentions an edition similar to this with the Date of 5 Nov. instead of 12 Nov. Brunet has probably mistaken, for it seems unlikely that at Seville in the same year and in the same size one edition should have been printed on the 5th Nov. and a second on the 12th Nov. I have not heard of any second copy of my edition of the Coronacion, 4to. s. a. et l." MS. note.

Twelve leaves.

"I have another edition printed by Cromberger at Seville in 1508 (see Part I. p. 459.) of great rarity, being quoted as the first edition. It seems however a question whether this is not prior to that of 1508." MS. note.

A present from Mr. Panizzi with an interesting letter on the subject of the Poem, and also in a bibliographical point of view; he concludes his letter as follows, "As you possess the very rare edition of Dante published by Tупpo at Naples, in the Colophon of which Tупpo alludes to the murder of Simon 'non sono molti anni,' and as the fact is said to have happened in 1475 according to all authorities, it may be of some interest to you to possess an uncommonly rare book, which may be of use in fixing at about 1480 the date of your Dante, the very year when Tупpo began to print separately from Reussinger."

PROCLAMATIONS. A Booke, containing all such Proclamations, as were published during the Raigne of the late Queene Elizabeth. Collected together by the industry of Humfrey Dyson, of the City of London, Publique Notary. London, printed by Bonham Norton, and John Bill. Deputie Printers for the Kings most Excellent Majestie, 1618. Fol. B. M.

This extraordinary Collection of the Proclamations of Q. Elizabeth, from her accession in 1558 to her death in 1603, was made (as appears by the above title) by Humfrey Dyson, who has also compiled and printed a Table of Contents and an Index. It was afterwards in the Collection of Narcissus Luttrell. There are copies in the Bodleian and Queen's College Libraries, Oxford, both wanting the Titles. The latter most valuable volume has several with Queen Elizabeth's signature, and several with Lord Burleigh's; it is preceded by some Proclamations of Henry VIII. and concludes with the only one known of Lady Jane Gray. The British Museum has the Title Page and Index, but none of the Proclamations. The following is a list of the contents of the present copy, containing above Three Hundred Proclamations.

In celebrissima urbe Londonii per Guilielmum Faquem, Regium impressorem. Anno domini, MDIII. Septima Februarii. 12mo. G. M.

This very curious edition is described at length in the new Edition of Ames by Dibdin, vol. III. p. 7, 9. Only two copies appear to be known. One in the Bodleian (Mr. Douce's), which is described as defective in the Title Page and in a few lines of the Table, and the present, which is in most beautiful condition and quite complete and ruled throughout. Some of the verses in the Calendar are very curious.

REGICIDES. The Speeches and Prayers of some of the late King's Judges, &c. at the times of their death. Printed Anno Dom. 1660. 4to. G. M.

Dr. Bliss, in a letter inserted in the volume, says, "It is an extraordinary book tho' not a rare one, and its history is little known. The Speeches and Prayers of the Regicides, so far from being 'faithfully collected,' are all forgeries, published with the treasonable intention of holding up their conduct for imitation and putting into the mouths of the dying men apologies for their disloyalty. It is, in fact, an incitement to the discontented to do by Charles the second, as their predecessors had previously done by Charles the first."

Zu Marpurg im Kleeblatt bei Andres Kolben, 1557. With wood cuts. 4to.

Collation. Eighty-one leaves unpagged, signatures a-v. Eight preliminary leaves containing the Title and two Dedications. At the end is a very curious Map of Brazil. The acquisition of this very curious volume enables us to call attention to another Edition improperly catalogued under Homberg, in Part I. page 333, with the omission of the second part.

This is a most interesting account of a wild, naked, savage race of Cannibals and of the manners and customs of Tuppin Inbas, whose prisoner Hans Staden became and remained there many years till relieved by a French vessel.

This original Edition is so rare that Camus could neither procure it, nor learn where it was printed. The account is considered so authentic and interesting that a new Edition of it is preparing in Germany.

The fythe yere of the Reyne of kynge Henry the seventh. Fol. R.

A very beautiful and perfect copy from the White Knight's Collection. The preface is particularly interesting and may be found entire in Dr. Dibdin's Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. IV. p. 285. and in his Edition of Ames's Typographical Antiquities Vol. I. p. 284. Dr. Dibdin says "the immediate original of Caxton's Book is supposed to be the French edition published at Lyons in 1483, by Guillaume le Roy, who was both translator and printer." Perfect copies are in the British Museum (George III.), in the Public Library at Cambridge and in the Libraries of the Duke of Devonshire and Earl Spencer.

"For a particular account of this most rare and curious book it is only necessary to refer to the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. IV. pp. 373 to 382.

"The present copy, though wanting two leaves, is in the most extraordinary condition, being uncut throughout, and apparently never having been bound, but only prepared for binding."

"The leaves which are wanting are f III. in the first Alphabet, and C i in the second Alphabet. These deficiencies being in the body of the book, hopes are entertained that some imperfect copy may be found to render this most interesting volume complete. In the mean time the two leaves have been supplied by admirable fac-similes by Harris." MS. note.

For an account of the Edition printed by Wynkyn de Worde, see Part I. p. 59, where the unique copy upon Vellum is described.

BAYLE, PIERRE. Dictionnaire Historique et Critique. Nouvelle Edition, augmentée de notes extraites de Chauffepié, Joly, La Monnoie, Leduchat, L. J. Leclerc, Prosper Marchand, &c. &c. Paris, 1820. 8vo. 16 vol.

BIBLE, THE HOLY. The Byble, which is all the holy Scripture; In which are containyd the Old and Newe Testament truly and purely translated into Englysh by Thomas Matthew. Esaye I. Hearcken ye heavens and thou earth geaue eare; For the Lorde speaketh. MDXXXVII. Set forth with the Kinge's most gracious lycēce. The ende of the newe Testament and of the whole Byble. To the honoure and prayse of God was this Byble prynted and fynessed in the yere of oure Lorde God a. MDXXXVII. Fol. B. M.

The real name of the Translator of this very rare Edition was John Rogers, the first Martyr in Queen Mary's Reign. He was educated at Cambridge, and appointed Chaplain to the Merchant adventurers at Antwerp, where he formed acquaintance with Tindal and Coverdale. He was burned at Smithfield, Feb. 4, 1555; pardon being offered him at the stake if he would recant, which he refused, saying "that what he had preached he would seal with his blood."

The present copy has the following defects. A letter or two cut off at the bottom of the first title; the title to the Prophets is repaired at the bottom; two leaves in the tables and the imprint are in fac simile by Harris, the corner of Ggg 2 torn off and a few leaves repaired. It is an edition of the greatest rarity.

An edition of very great rarity. It is minutely described by Clement, vol. 3 p. 441 &c. also in the Bibl. Spencer. vol. 1. p. 90. The present copy was obtained from the Library of the Grand Duke of Muscovy by Jeremiah Horsey, who was agent from Queen Elizabeth to that Court in 1581. It was afterwards in the Collection of the Duke of Sussex.

— Mamusse Wunneetupanatamwe up Biblum God, &c. (The Bible translated into the Virginian Indian Language by John Eliot.) Cambridge (New England), 1661-3. 4to. B. M.

"It is a work of very considerable literary curiosity. A translation of the entire Scriptures, made by One Man, performing the laborious duties of a parish clergyman in an infant Colony, into a barbarous and difficult Language, which he began to study at the age of forty-two years. It is a subject of painful reflection, that the dialect should have so completely passed away, with those who spoke it, in two Centuries, that it may be doubtful whether there is now living an individual capable of reading or understanding this translation." Extract from a letter from Mr. Everett on presenting this book to Mr. Grenville.
